Dear Tiffany,

I saw your last email about the locked room in the basement. I'm not sure what's in it. I didn't even know there was another room in the basement. The master key you have should be able to open all the locks in the building. Maybe it's just stuck? I'll talk to some others and get back to you.

P.S. I have the new annual reports for you and will drop them off at your desk later today.

Warm regards,
Judy
