Dear Tiffany,

I asked around, too and I no one else knows how to get into the rooms either! I've been here for 15 years and have never even heard of the locked rooms downstairs so I called my friend Cheryl who worked here for years before I came in and she said that she had heard of the rooms a long time ago. Back then some other workers were asking about them but when they asked management everyone who knew about them was suddenly laid-off in a "tax cut".

I don't know what's going on but I'm going to try to get to the bottom of it.

P.s. Did you see that the business was cutting our salaries??

Warm regards,
Judy
